The screenshot shows the Movienator website interface. At the top, there is a dark red header with the 'Movienator' logo on the left, a search bar with a magnifying glass icon and the text 'Search...', a 'BROWSE ALL' button, and a user profile icon. Below the header, the main content area is titled 'Best film by director'. A 'SHOW FILTERS' button is visible in the top right of the content area. A modal dialog titled 'Filter Movies' is open in the center. The dialog has three tabs: 'BY YEAR AND GENRE' (with a calendar icon), 'BY RATING' (with a star icon and currently selected), and 'BY PEOPLE AND COUNTRY' (with a group of people icon). Under the 'BY RATING' tab, there are two star rating selectors. The first is labeled 'Minimum rating: 2.5/5' and shows 3 yellow stars and 2 grey stars. The second is labeled 'Maximum rating: 5/5' and shows 5 yellow stars. At the bottom of the dialog are 'APPLY' and 'CANCEL' buttons. In the background, a table is partially visible with columns for 'Director', 'Rating', and an unlabeled column. The table lists several directors and their ratings.

The background of the slide is a photograph of a movie theater. In the foreground, there are several rows of red upholstered seats, seen from behind, receding into the distance. At the far end of the theater, a large, vertically pleated curtain is illuminated from behind, creating a warm, golden glow. The text is overlaid on this background.
